He alleged that since she came into her property in 1884 the Princess has spent $600,000, in addition to an annual income of from $25,000 to $50,000. Mr. Lyons produced proof that his nisce concurred with him in believing a conservator necessary. The present action, according to statements of Mr. Lyons to the jury, was precipitated by the demand in February last from Egypt for $50,000 to pay the woman's accumulated debts. These had accrued in two years.
